Good morning, my name is Jack. It is really a great honor to have this opportunity, and I believe I can make good performance today and consequently be enrolled in your prestigious university. Now I will introduce myself briefly. I am 21 years old, born in Hei Longjiang province, northeast of China, and I am a senior student at Beijing XX University. My major is packaging engineering. And I will receive my bachelor degree after my graduation in June. In the past four years, I spent most of my time on study. I passed CET4/6 with a ease and acquired basic theoretical and practical knowledge of packaging and publishing. Besides, I have attended several packaging exhibitions held in Beijing, which really showed our professional advantages. I have taken a tour to some big factories and companies, through which I got a deep understanding of domestic packaging industry. Compared to developed countries, unfortunately, although we have made extraordinary progress since 1978, our packaging industry is still underdeveloped, messy and unstable, and the situation of employees in the field is awkward. But I have full confidence in its bright future if only our economy can be kept at the growth pace still. I guess you may be interested in why I choose law as my future major and what is my plan of graduate life. I would like to tell you that to pursue law is one of my lifelong goals. I like my major packaging and won't give it up. If I can pursue master's degree here, I will combine law with my former education. I will work hard in such fields as patent, trademark and copyright on the basis of my years study in packaging and publishing. As to my character, I cannot describe it well, but I know I am optimistic and confident. Sometimes I prefer to stay alone, reading and listening to the music, but I am not lonely, for I like to chat with my classmates about almost everything. My favorite pastime is to play volleyball, to play cards or to surf online. From life at university, I learn how to balance study and entertainment. By the way, I was an actor in our amazing drama club. I have a few glorious memories on stage. That is my pride...
